

Meet the Team!

Jena Mueller PT, DPT

- Enjoys treating the cervical spine and the knee as well as the athletic population.
- From Cincinnati, OH
- Certifications: OCS (Orthopedic clinical specialist), Graston M1 Certified, BFR (blood flow restriction)

Nicholas Ertsgaard M.S.
CCC-SLP, Clinic Director

- Specialties: Voice, early intervention, school-age intervention, attention, cognition, stuttering, and swallowing disorders.
- I enjoy working with the entire age range from Pediatrics to Adults/Geriatrics. All ages are all welcome!

Leah Thomas, PT, DPT

- As a new graduate, I am constantly learning something new and I strive to not let that change throughout my entire career.
- Enjoys treating patients with knee pain! From the young athlete recovering from an ACL tear to the mature individual suffering from knee pain getting out of a chair.

Kelly Dohmeyer, PT

- Special interest in treating TMJ dysfunction and vertigo
- From Salem, OR.
- Attended PT school at the University of Montana
- Ran X-country and track at UM
- Coached HS track for 12 years
- Enjoys hiking the beautiful PNW

Grant Bortnem,
PT, DPT, OCS

- Enjoys treating chronic back pain and general orthopedic conditions
- From Newberg, OR
- Attended PT school at Pacific University
- Enjoys working outdoors
- Was a rower on OSU's crew team

Samantha Vance
OTR/R, CSRS

- Educational background- Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences, Certified Stroke Rehabilitation Specialist
- Hobbies: Hiking, crafting, binge-watching Netflix

Chris Woods, PT, OCS

- Enjoys treating patients with chronic and neuropathic pain, as well as lower extremity orthopedics
- From Southern California
- Attended PT School at Duke
- Enjoys hiking and backpacking
- Has traveled to more countries than US states

John Farris, PT, DPT, OCS

- Enjoys treating orthopedic injuries and ailments
- From Bellingham, WA
- Attended PT school at University of Colorado & volunteered in Guatemala prior to moving to Salem
- Enjoys hiking, running, skiing, soccer, and tennis