

PHYSICAL THERAPY & PERFORMANCE

MEET OUR TEAM

Rancho Santa Margarita

Alyssa Farr, PT, DPT

Alyssa graduated from the University of Dayton in 2017 with her DPT. As a former collegiate volleyball player, she specializes in treating the overhead athlete, ACL reconstructions, and labral pathologies of the shoulder and hip. Alyssa empowers her patients to "fix their body with their body." She also enjoys spending time with her dog Benny and searching for the best taco in SoCal.

Brittany Deyhle, PT, DPT

Brittany graduated from Dominican College with her DPT. She has experience in the pediatric, hospital, and orthopedic settings and has become certified in LSVT-BIG, a treatment program used with people diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease. Outside of physical therapy, Alyssa enjoys training jiu jitsu and being outside hiking.

John O'Connor, PT, DPT

John graduated from the University of Pennsylvania with his DPT. He is seasoned with over 40 years of experience in outpatient Orthopedics with post-surgical and non-surgical clients. John takes pride in educating his patients and empowering them to achieve their functional goals. He enjoys all sports including baseball, football, & golf.

Kevin Aguinaldo, PT, DPT

Kevin received his DPT from the University of Southern California in 2015. Kevin believes every patient is unique and tailors each of his treatments specific to their needs. Growing up in Southern California Kevin developed a love for all sports, He enjoys fishing, cooking, and traveling abroad.

Taylor Olson, PT, DPT

Taylor received her DPT from Baylor University. She has experience in Acute Care/Inpatient and Outpatient Orthopedic settings, but ultimately found a love for outpatient orthopedics where she can help the people in her community reach their individual goals. She enjoys water skiing, wakeboarding, snowboarding, and stand-up paddleboarding in her free time.